1.1) Fresh Malai Paneer 1 KG

UAE

Price: AED 40/KG

Product Image: Can be taken from Shutterstock etc

Description:

MALAI PANEER (INDIAN COTTAGE CHEESE) The HACCP certified company engaged in manufacturing of fresh Paneer in the U.A.E. A fully dedicated plant for manufacturing and packaging of fresh and authentic Paneer in UAE. Uses buffalo-based ingredients for the production of paneer so as to achieve perfect sensory and physical characteristics such as sponginess, marble white color and creamy-nutty taste. Chemical Analysis: Fresh paneer as offered by us is a FULL FAT Paneer Cheese having 50% min Fat on Dry Matter (F.D.M) as per the guidelines for full fat paneer. The higher fat percentage results in better taste and perfect sponginess. Our paneer is low in moisture (less than 60%), high in protein-15% min and has higher total solids to impart fresh creamy flavor. Microbial Analysis: Our products are compliant with the U.A.E/Gulf regulation food testing Standards as prescribed by the Food Control Department. Municipality laboratory analysis report is available on weekly basis. Usage: Ideal for frying (paneer pakora), Bar-b-que (paneer tikka) in curries, salads, sandwiches, etc. Advantage: In the UAE, paneer is available in frozen form and are restricted to only small cubes. Paneer, when frozen, loses all its attributes and characteristics and is tasteless. On the contrary, our paneer is very fresh, creamy in taste, perfect color with very good slice ability and is available in block form.

Ingredients: Water, Milk Solids, Milk Fat, Stabilizer (E412, E471, E412), Calcium, Citric Acid (Used for Co-agulation).

About Us:

The story so far (on top of image)

Desi Delight was imagined by three friends during a dinner at friend's place. As homemakers and home-grown family's Michelin star rated chefs with a love to make all of the dishes utterly delicious, it felt natural to bring this kind of quality to the real world. A simple ambition to provide high quality food products to make everyone's dish ten times better.
